G4S REGULATED SECURITY SOLUTIONS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE EXCEPTIONS AND BRIEF TO ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S DECISION

On November 16, 2012, Administrative Law Judge William N. Cates issued his Decision in this matter finding that Respondent committed certain unfair labor practices. Pursuant to Section 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations, presuming proper service, exceptions and a brief in support of exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's decision are due December 14, 2012, 28 days after service of the order transferring the case to the Board. However, to date, Respondent has not been properly served with either the order transferring this case to the Board or the Administrative Law Judge's decision. Accordingly, given this delay, for the reasons set forth below, Respondent respectfully requests an extension of time, through and including December 28, 2012, to file its exceptions and supporting brief:

1. On July 12, 2011, Fred Seleman, counsel for Respondent, notified the Board, via letter, that his office had relocated to 1395 University Boulevard, Jupiter, Florida 33458. At the same time, Mr. Seleman informed the Board that he had

- not been served with a copy of the Administrative Law Judge's June 27, 2011 decision in connection with this matter. See Exhibit "A."
- 2. On July 27, 2011, the Board's Deputy Executive Secretary, Gary Shinners, sent the parties a letter acknowledging that not all parties were served with the Administrative Law Judge's June 27, 2011 decision. As a result, Mr. Shinners advised that the time to file exceptions to the June 27, 2011 decision was extended until August 24, 2011. See Exhibit "B."
- 3. As of December 4, 2012, despite Mr. Seleman's July 12, 2011 letter advising to the contrary, Mr. Seleman's address is still incorrectly listed on the Board's website as PO Box 109603, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida 33410. See Exhibit "C."
- 4. Accordingly, Respondent did not promptly receive a copy of the November 16, 2012 order transferring this case to the Board or the Administrative Law Judge's November 16, 2012 decision.
- 5. In fact, Mr. Seleman did not learn that the Administrative Law Judge had issued his decision until November 26, 2012, when he received an e-mail from the NLRB Updates list serve which contained a link to the decision. See Exhibit "D."
- 6. Therefore, given this delay, pursuant to Section 102.46(d)(3) of the Board's Rules and Regulations, Respondent respectfully requests a 14-day extension, through and including December 28, 2012, to file its exceptions and supporting brief.

Re: Change of Address relative to Cases 12-CA-26644 and 12-CA-26811

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that the Employer's office relocated a number of months ago, as a result of which my office address is as follows: 1395 University Boulevard, Jupiter, FL 33458. As a result of my failure to provide notice of this change previously, I still have not received a copy of the ALJ's decision issued in the referenced cases. I would appreciate it if the Division of Judges and Region 12 would make the necessary change to my address so I receive all other documents in these cases going forward.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Fred Seleman

Very truly yours,

July 27, 2011

Dear Gentlepersons:

Due to a technical error in the Board's case processing system, not all parties were served the administrative law judge's decision in G4S Regulated Security Solutions, A Division of G4S Secure Solutions (USA) Inc. f/k/a The Wackenhut Corp., 12-CA-26644, et al., issued on June 27, 2011. Accordingly, an Amended Affidavit of Service and Amended Order Transferring Proceeding to the Board has been issued, and exceptions to the administrative law judge's decision will now be due on August 24, 2011.

Sincerely,

Gary Shinners

Deputy Executive Secretary
